

Check out these suggested walking routes and learn something new about Downtown Bloomington

Looking for Lincoln (1 Mile)— Learn about President Lincoln's connection to Bloomington by following this path around downtown and read the signs as you go. There are blue signs to help guide your way. The Museum will be unveiling a new exhibit on May 22 about Mr. Lincoln.

1. 100-198 S. East Street (outside of the Lincoln garage) The Lost Speech
2. 101-199 E. Front St. Miller Davis Building/ Asahel Gridley's Bank
3. 101-199 W. Front St. The National Hotel
4. 101-199 E. Washington St. The Phoenix Block
5. 201-299 N. Main St – Lincoln the Lawyer
6. 100-198 W. Monroe St. – The Pike House

Public Art Tour – Downtown Bloomington is home to several murals and statues created by local or regional artist. This will take you on a tour of many of them. (1.4 miles)

1. 100 N. Main St. Phoenix Mural by Joel Bergner & Students
2. 200 E. Washington St. (Withers Park) Trotter Memorial by Lorado Taft
3. 100 W. Washington St. (McLean County Museum of History) Lincoln Bench by Rick Harney
4. 101 W. Monroe St. – Gov. Fifer by Mark Blumenshine
5. 104 W. Monroe St. Faces of Historical Figures by Mark Blumenshine
6. 428-430 N. Main Street Crossroads Entrance Mural by Vince Bobrosky
7. 531 N. East Street – Golfer in the courtyard – Mulligan's Courtyard unknown artist
8. 600 N. East Street – Statue of Lincoln, Davis and Fell in front of the BCPA by Andrew Jumonville
9. 601 N. East Street – Statue in front of the McLean County Arts Center by Ed McCulloch
10. 626 N. Main Street (Northside of Penelope's) Billy the Barber Mural by Mark Blumenshine
11. 517 N. Main Street Courtyard – Chicago Football and baseball mural by Gavin Lee
12. Corner of Market and Main Patchwork Mural – 41 different local artists
13. 102 W. Market Seasonal Mural by Doug DeLong
14. 108 W. Market – facing Center St. (Center for Human Services) Landscape by Jeff Little
15. 411 N. Center (alley) Star-crossed Pollinators Statue by Herb Eaton
16. Alley between the Monroe Center & Illinois House on Center Street by Ashley Freeland