It has 59 rooms with full bathroom and roll in showers. Each bedroom has a TV. In addition, 16 suites are reserved for immune-suppressed patients and their families. Each room accommodates up to three people and suites accommodate up to four people. Linens and towels are provided at check-in. A family kitchen, with lockers for each guest room, is available for guests who want to bring groceries and prepare their own meals. Several safe and comfortable common rooms and sitting areas help provide guests a comforting home-like setting. Complimentary shuttle service to and from UNC Hospitals is provided by UNC Hospitals Transportation. Family House is approximately 1 mile from UNC Hospitals.

Who can stay at the House?

SECU Family House at UNC Hospitals is open to all adult (18 years and older) patients at UNC Hospitals and their family members and caregivers. Guests must have a permanent home address and must live more than 50 miles from Chapel Hill, unless their physician specifies a shorter travel time (patients/families living less than 50 miles from Chapel Hill are allowed on a night-to-night basis if space is available). There is a limit of one room per family. Rooms can accommodate up to 3 guests. Suites can accommodate up to 4 guests and are reserved for patients with impaired resistance to infections. All rooms are reserved on a wait-list basis.

What do I need to do?

Once the House receives a referral from UNC Hospitals or a clinic, you will be placed on a waiting list for the day you will be arriving in Chapel Hill. If it is your first visit, the House will contact you directly, either by phone, email, or US mail ahead of time. After your name is placed on the waiting list, you will need to call the House between 11 am and 2 pm, on the day you will be arriving, to see if we have a room available. A hotel referral, at a reduced rate, may be made if we do not have space available. If your circumstances change, causing you not to need a room, please be sure to call the Family House back and let us know you will NOT be coming. That frees up a room for another family.

How long can a family stay?

A guest's length of stay is directly related to the treatment needs of the patient. The House works with the medical and social work team to determine the necessary length of stay. Some guests stay only one or two nights, some for several weeks, and some for months.

How much does it cost?

There is a nightly charge of $54 (for a room) or $72 (for a suite), which includes room, linens, use of kitchen and laundry, etc. Upon admission to the House, the guest is expected to pay up to one week in advance and each week thereafter. In addition to cash or check, we accept MasterCard, Visa, and American Express. Guests needing financial assistance may contact their social worker at the hospital.

How do you decide who gets into the House?

Admission requests are prioritized based on the medical condition of the patient and the availability of other options for housing, e.g., a sleep bed in the patient's room at the Hospital.

Is transportation provided?

UNC Hospitals provides a free shuttle service to and from UNC Hospitals and Clinics. The shuttle provides service from the front circle of Family House to the basement level of The Cancer Hospital. A schedule can be picked up at the front desk, but the shuttle also operates on off hours via request. Call 984-974-0465 to schedule a pick-up to go to the hospital or return to Family House.

What are the rules?

First and foremost, our primary concern is that the guests staying at the House are safe and comfortable. We must therefore ask that each guest abide by the simple rules that we have established. Disruptive or irresponsible behavior that threatens the security or well-being of our guests will not be tolerated and will result in the loss of House privileges. We do expect that you will use the House for the purpose for which it is intended -- to enable you to receive treatment or visit your family member being treated at UNC Hospitals. We also expect that you will help keep the house clean and neat, including your room. There is no smoking inside the House or on the grounds.

This is a communal environment. Guests are asked to live by the Golden Rule, "do unto others as you would have others do unto you." This means, do not take food labeled with someone else's name; do not take more than one serving's worth of community food, to ensure that all living at the House is able to get a serving; and clean up after yourself. When able, do something for the community in general, for example, take out garbage to the dumpsters, empty dishwashers and put dishes away, etc. When in doubt, ask the Manager. Upon admission to the House, all guests will receive more information on specific rules and consequences.
