Cary Community Foundation accepting grant applications

For immediate release – 6/25/18

The board of advisors of the Cary Community Foundation is currently accepting grant applications for programs funded from its community grantmaking fund, according to Laura Martin, board president.

Funds are available for nonprofit organizations that serve general charitable needs in Cary. Applications are available online beginning June 29. Visit nccommunityfoundation.org for information about applying. The deadline for submitting applications is noon July 31.

For further information, contact NCCF Regional Director Quinn Novels at 919-256-6914 or qnovels@nccommunityfoundation.org or visit the NCCF website at nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the Cary Community Foundation

The Cary Community Foundation is a growing family of philanthropic funds, resource for area nonprofits, source of grants for worthy local causes and partner for donors. CCF is led by a local volunteer advisory board that helps build community assets through the creation of permanent endowments, makes grants and leverages leadership – all for the benefit of Cary. Whatever your means or charitable goals, the CCF makes it easy to become a philanthropist. CCF was founded in 2006 and is an affiliate foundation of the North Carolina Community Foundation. In addition to Martin, board members include: Mike Stellpflug (secretary), Debbie Fox, Catherine Pham, Simmi Prasad, Prity Shah and Sarah Stoeckel.

Tax-deductible contributions, made payable to the Cary Community Foundation, can be mailed to the North Carolina Community Foundation, 3737 Glenwood Ave. Suite 460, Raleigh, NC 27612. Contributions can also be made online at nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has administered more than $130 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With nearly $247 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
