Chowan Community Funds Foundation accepting grant applications

For immediate release – 3/6/18

The board of advisors of the Chowan Community Funds Foundation is currently accepting grant applications for projects funded from its community grantmaking fund, according to Katharine Farless, board president.

Funds are available for nonprofit organizations that serve general charitable needs in Chowan County. Applications are available online beginning March 9. Visit nccommunityfoundation.org for information about applying. The deadline for submitting applications is noon April 10.

About the Chowan Community Funds Foundation

The Chowan Community Funds Foundation was founded in 2006 and is an affiliate foundation of the North Carolina Community Foundation. CCCF is led by a local volunteer advisory board that helps build community assets through the creation of permanent endowments, makes grants and leverages leadership – all for the benefit of Chowan County. In addition to Farless, board members include: Lynne Layton (vice president), Robin Sams (secretary treasurer), John Bryant, Robert Ford, Cynthia Harding, Paul Hicks and Landon Mason.

Tax-deductible contributions, made payable to the Chowan Community Funds Foundation, can be mailed to the North Carolina Community Foundation, 3737 Glenwood Ave. Suite 460, Raleigh, NC 27612. Contributions can also be made online at nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has administered more than $130 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With nearly $247 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
