Currituck-Dare Community Foundation and Currituck-Dare Women's Fund accepting grant applications

For immediate release – 6/25/18

The board of advisors of the Currituck-Dare Community Foundation is currently accepting grant applications for programs funded from its community grantmaking fund, according to Sheila Davies, board president. Funds are available for nonprofit organizations that serve general charitable needs in Currituck and Dare counties.

The Currituck-Dare Women's Fund is also accepting grant applications from area nonprofits that serve the needs of women and children, according to Loismary Hoehne and Janet Colegrove, co-chairs.

Applications are available online beginning June 29. Visit nccommunityfoundation.org for information about applying. The deadline for submitting applications is noon July 31.

For further information, contact NCCF Regional Director Natalie Peel at 252-562-9824 or npeel@nccommunityfoundation.org or visit the NCCF website at nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the Currituck-Dare Community Foundation

The Currituck-Dare Community Foundation is a growing family of philanthropic funds, resource for area nonprofits, source of grants for worthy local causes and partner for donors. CDCF is led by a local volunteer advisory board that helps build community assets through the creation of permanent endowments, makes grants and leverages leadership – all for the benefit of Currituck and Dare counties. Whatever your means or charitable goals, the CDCF makes it easy to become a philanthropist. CDCF was founded in 1999 and is an affiliate foundation of the North Carolina Community Foundation. In addition to Davies, board members include: Loismary Hoehne (vice president), Linda Algood (treasurer), Margaret Di Small (secretary), Janet Colegrove, Nina Foster, Scott Foster, Patty Guillaume, Cynthia Jarvis, Daniel La Rue, Vickie Smith Moore, Jane Oden, Hannah Robinson and Ginger Webster.

Tax-deductible contributions, made payable to the Currituck-Dare Community Foundation, can be mailed to the North Carolina Community Foundation, 3737 Glenwood Ave. Suite 460, Raleigh, NC 27612. Contributions can also be made online at nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the Currituck-Dare Women's Fund

The Currituck-Dare Women's Fund is a program of the North Carolina Community Foundation designed to maximize women's leadership in philanthropy by engaging and educating its membership, increasing charitable contributions and strengthening communities through the impact of collective giving. The annual grant focus is on women and children in Currituck and Dare counties.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has administered more than $130 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With nearly $247 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
