Currituck-Dare Community Foundation announces new board members

For immediate release – 4/5/18

The board of advisors of the Currituck-Dare Community Foundation announces new advisory board members, according to Sheila Davies, board president.

Joining the board are:

- Ginger Webster of Kitty Hawk. She previously served on the board from 2005 – 2011, is a past board member and secretary of the NC Coastal Federation, past president of the Duck Woods Country Club Women’s Association & Ladies Tennis Association and the project director of the Philanthropic Education Organization. She holds a bachelor’s degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in business administration.
- Cynthia Jarvis of Moyock. She is a retired Currituck County social services staff member and the owner of Jarvis Farms, Inc. She holds a bachelor’s degree from the University of Mary Washington in psychology.

“We are very excited to have these leaders join our board,” Davies said. “We look forward to working with them to benefit our local community.”

About the Currituck-Dare Community Foundation

The Currituck-Dare Community Foundation was founded in 1999 and is an affiliate of the North Carolina Community Foundation. CDCF is led by a local volunteer advisory board that helps build community assets through the creation of permanent endowments, makes grants and leverages leadership – all for the benefit of Currituck and Dare counties. In addition to Davies, board members include: Loismary Hoehne (vice president), Linda Algood (treasurer), Di Small (secretary), Janet Colegrove, Nina Foster, Scott Foster, Patty Guillaume, Cynthia Jarvis, Daniel La Rue, Vickie Smith Moore, Jane Oden, Hannah Robinson and Ginger Webster.

Tax-deductible contributions, made payable to the Currituck-Dare Community Foundation, can be mailed to the North Carolina Community Foundation, 3737 Glenwood Ave. Suite 460, Raleigh, NC 27612. Contributions can also be made online at nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has administered more than $130 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With nearly $247 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
