Haywood County Community Foundation announces scholarship availability

For Immediate Release – 02/01/16

The board of advisors of the Haywood County Community Foundation announces the availability of many local and statewide scholarships, according to Clay Dangerfield, board president.

Dangerfield said this is a good opportunity for Haywood County students to further their educations. “The Haywood County board wants to raise awareness among area youth about opportunities offered through scholarships held with the North Carolina Community Foundation,” he said.

Scholarships are available for students meeting various eligibility requirements detailed and found on nccommunityfoundation.org/scholarships. The deadline for submitting applications is posted on the NCCF website.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has made $101 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With more than $237 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with 60 affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance in 67 counties across the state. An important component of NCCF’s mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
