Haywood County Community Foundation accepting grant applications

For immediate release – 7/6/17

The board of advisors of the Haywood County Community Foundation is accepting grant applications for projects funded from its community grantmaking fund, according to Clay Dangerfield, board president.

Funds are available for nonprofit organizations that serve general charitable needs in Haywood County. Applications are available online beginning July 7. Visit nccommunityfoundation.org for information about applying. The deadline for submitting applications is noon Aug. 8.

About the Haywood County Community Foundation

The Haywood County Community Foundation was founded by a group of committed citizens to serve as a local resource to meet community needs through permanent endowments that fuel grantmaking. In addition to Dangerfield, board members include: Belva Evans (secretary), Wilma Boatwright, James Bromley, Gary Lance, Thomas Ray and William Skelton.

Tax-deductible contributions, made payable to the Haywood County Community Grantmaking Fund, can be mailed to the North Carolina Community Foundation, 3737 Glenwood Ave. Suite 460, Raleigh, NC 27612. Contributions can also be made online at nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has made $116 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With more than $222 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships.

The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
