Lenoir County Community Foundation accepting grant applications

For immediate release -- 3/13/17

The board of advisors of the Lenoir County Community Foundation is currently accepting grant applications for projects funded from its community grantmaking fund, according to Adrian King, board president.

Funds are available for nonprofit organizations that serve general charitable needs in Lenoir County. Applications are available online beginning March 17. Visit nccommunityfoundation.org for information about applying. The deadline for submitting applications is noon April 18.

The Lenoir County Community Foundation is an affiliate of the North Carolina Community Foundation. The community grantmaking fund was established to support local charitable needs through annual grants. In addition to King, board members include: Frances Theodorakis (vice president), Jimmette Graham (secretary), Chris Henderson (treasurer), Gregory Floyd, Skip Greene, Greg Hannibal, Earl Harper, Mary Jo Jefferson, John Marston, Marc McConnell, Julian Pridgen, Caroline Roberts, Leraine Tolson and Dale Warner.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has made $116 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With more than $222 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships.

The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
