Lenoir County Community Foundation accepting grant applications

For immediate release – 3/12/18

The board of advisors of the Lenoir County Community Foundation is currently accepting grant applications for projects funded from its community grantmaking fund, according to Frances Theodorakis, board president.

Funds are available for nonprofit organizations that serve general charitable needs in Lenoir County. Applications are available online beginning March 16. Visit nccommunityfoundation.org for information about applying. The deadline for submitting applications is noon April 17.

About the Lenoir County Community Foundation

The Lenoir County Community Foundation was founded in 1993 and is a local affiliate foundation of the North Carolina Community Foundation. LCCF is led by a local volunteer advisory board that helps build community assets through the creation of permanent endowments, makes grants and leverages leadership – all for the benefit of Lenoir County. In addition to Theodorakis, board members include: James C. Purnell (vice-president), Jimmette Graham (secretary), Chris Henderson (treasurer), Tonya Adams, Gregory Floyd, Skip Greene, Greg Hannibal, Stephen Hill, Mary Jo Jefferson, Adrian King, John Marston, Joseph Raspberry, Caroline Roberts, Sanday Skirving, Leraime Tolson, Dee Warner, Michael Whitfield and Kevin Zoltek.

Tax-deductible contributions, made payable to the Lenoir County Community Foundation, can be mailed to the North Carolina Community Foundation, 3737 Glenwood Ave. Suite 460, Raleigh, NC 27612. Contributions can also be made online at nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has administered more than $130 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With nearly $247 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
