Montgomery County Fund accepting grant applications

For immediate release – 2/27/18

The board of advisors of the Montgomery County Fund is currently accepting grant applications for projects funded from its community grantmaking fund, according to Sharon Matheny, board president.

Funds are available for nonprofit organizations that serve general charitable needs in Montgomery County. Applications are available online beginning March 2. Visit nccommunityfoundation.org/montgomery for information about applying. The deadline for submitting applications is noon April 3.

About the Montgomery County Fund

The Montgomery County Fund was founded in 1992 and is an affiliate foundation of the North Carolina Community Foundation. MCF is led by a local volunteer advisory board that helps build community assets through the creation of permanent endowments, makes grants and leverages leadership – all for the benefit of Montgomery County. In addition to Matheny, board members include: Michael Hayes (vice-president), Gary McRae (secretary), Breon Allen, Will Carpenter, Clyde Cupples, Brady Dickson, Kerry Hensley, Rosemary Huntley, Craig Jones, Richard Kissell, Gordon M. Knowles, Earl Leake, Vera C. Richardson, and Melissa Taylor.

Tax-deductible contributions, made payable to the Montgomery County Fund, can be mailed to the North Carolina Community Foundation, 3737 Glenwood Ave. Suite 460, Raleigh, NC 27612. Contributions can also be made online at nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has administered more than $130 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With nearly $247 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
