FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – 07/24/2015

Northern Albemarle Community Foundation adds new advisory board members

The Northern Albemarle Community Foundation has named new advisory board members, according to Kathryn Scott, board president.

Joining the board are:

- Matt Wood, Retired Farmer and Community Volunteer
- Phyllis Bosomworth, Owner, Long & Foster Real Estate
- David Pureza, Attorney, Thompson & Pureza
- Dan Askew (returning to the board), Southern Bank
- Jamila Shipman, Nonprofit leader

“We are very excited to have these community leaders join our board,” Scott said. “We look forward to working with them to benefit the community.”

In addition to Scott, current board members are: Quincy Tharps (vice president), Christi Quance (secretary), Kathy Leary (treasurer), Rebecca Elliot, Russell Hull, Joseph Peel and Becky Phelps.

The Northern Albemarle Community Foundation was established in 2001 to help donors create and build endowments to meet their philanthropic goals; make grants to local nonprofit organizations; and support community needs in Camden, Gates, Pasquotank and Perquimans counties. The Northern Albemarle Community Foundation is an affiliate of the North Carolina Community Foundation.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has made $89 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With more than $191 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with 60 affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance in 67 counties across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
