Northern Albemarle Community Foundation announces new advisory board chair

For immediate release -- 2/25/16

The Northern Albemarle Community Foundation has named Phyllis Bosomworth of Elizabeth City the new chair of the advisory board.

Bosomworth is a leader in business and civic life in the northern Albemarle area. She serves as president of Long & Foster Realtors and is actively involved in the Rotary Club, North Carolina Public Policy Board, Chamber of Commerce, College of the Albemarle Foundation Board and First United Methodist Church. She is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and Leadership North Carolina.

“I am very excited to work with leaders across northern Albemarle to benefit our local community,” Bosomworth said.

The Northern Albemarle Community Foundation was established in 2001 to help donors create and build endowments to meet their philanthropic goals, make grants to local nonprofit organizations and support community needs in Camden, Gates, Pasquotank and Perquimans counties. In addition to Bosomworth, current board members are: Christi Quance (secretary), Kathy Leary (treasurer), Kathryn Scott (immediate past president), Dan Askew, Rebecca Elliott, Russell M. Hull, III, Joseph Peel, Becky Phelps, David Pureza, Jamilla Shipman and Matt Wood. The Northern Albemarle Community Foundation is an affiliate of the North Carolina Community Foundation.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has made $101 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With more than $237 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with 60 affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance in 67 counties across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
