Northern Albemarle Community Foundation and Women Givers of Northeast NC accepting grant applications

For immediate release -- 3/7/17

The board of advisors of the Northern Albemarle Community Foundation is currently accepting grant applications for projects funded from its community grantmaking fund and the Judge Thomas Watts Fund, according to Phyllis Bosomworth, board president.

The Women Givers of Northeast North Carolina is also accepting grant request from area nonprofits that serve the needs of women and children.

Funds are available for nonprofit organizations that serve general charitable needs in Camden, Gates, Pasquotank and Perquimans counties. Applications are available beginning March 10. Visit nccommunityfoundation.org for information about applying. The deadline for submitting applications is noon April 11.

The Northern Albemarle Community Foundation is an affiliate of the North Carolina Community Foundation. The community grantmaking fund was established to support local charitable needs through annual grants. In addition to Bosomworth, board members include: James M. Watson (vice President), Christi Quance (secretary), Kathy Leary (treasurer), Dan Askew, Grafton Beaman, Rebecca Elliott, Joseph Peel, Becky Phelps, David Pureza and Matt Wood.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has made $116 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With more than $222 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
