Northern Albemarle Community Foundation announces $100,000 in local grants from the HCWGMW Fund

For immediate release – 11/7/17

The Northern Albemarle Community Foundation announces $100,000 in local grants from the HCWGMW Fund, according to Natalie Jenkins Peel, NCCF regional director.

This year's nonprofit recipients are:

- $40,000 to the Perquimans Education Foundation for the Moving Minds Through Movement program, a collaboration with the YMCA
- $25,000 to the Elizabeth City Pasquotank Public Schools Education Foundation for the ECP Backpacks program, a collaboration with ECPPS, local churches and the Food Bank of the Albemarle
- $5,000 to the College of the Albemarle for the Camp Scrubs, a collaboration with the YMCA
- $9,000 to the Boys & Girls Club for the Community Garden, a collaboration with Blackwell Church
- $6,000 to the YMCA for the Regrant of All Kids Swim program for Gates County kindergarteners
- $15,000 to Arts of the Albemarle for the Regrant of Art is for everyone program with the Boys & Girls Club

"The Northern Albemarle Community Foundation is honored to have the HCWGMW Fund included in our family of funds," said Phyllis Bosomworth, NACF board president. "These grants are meant to encourage collaboration among area nonprofits that are assisting with Healthy Eating and Active Living Initiatives with at risk youth."

The HCWGMW Fund is a donor-advised fund administered by the North Carolina Community Foundation and held within the Northern Albemarle Community Foundation's local family of funds having an impact across the Northern Albemarle region.

About the Northern Albemarle Community Foundation

The Northern Albemarle Community Foundation was founded in 2001 and is an affiliate foundation of the North Carolina Community Foundation. NACF is led by a local volunteer advisory board that helps build community assets through the creation of permanent endowments, makes grants and leverages leadership – all for the benefit of the Northern Albemarle. In addition to Bosomworth, board members include: James Watson (vice president), Christi Quance (secretary), Kathy Leary (treasurer), Dan Askew, Grafton Beaman, Rebecca Elliott, Brenda Lassiter, Joseph Peel, Becky Phelps, David Pureza and Matt Wood.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has made more than $130 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With more than $247 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
