Northern Albemarle Community Foundation announces new board members

For immediate release – 3/13/18

The board of advisors of the Northern Albemarle Community Foundation announces new advisory board members, according to James Watson, board president.

Joining the board are:

- Brian Beasley of Camden. He works for the NC Farm Bureau and is a graduate of Campbell University.
- Rodney Walton of Elizabeth City. He works for PNC Bank, is a member of the Zoning Board and is a graduate of St. John’s University.
- Angela Cole of Elizabeth City. She is the Assistant City Manager for Elizabeth City, serves on many local boards and is a graduate of Spelman College and Georgia State University.

“We are very excited to have these leaders join our board,” Watson said. “We look forward to working with them to benefit our local community.”

About the Northern Albemarle Community Foundation

The Northern Albemarle Community Foundation was founded in 2001 and is an affiliate foundation of the North Carolina Community Foundation. NACF is led by a local volunteer advisory board that helps build community assets through the creation of permanent endowments, makes grants and leverages leadership – all for the benefit of Camden, Gates, Pasquotank and Perquimans counties. In addition to Watson, board members include: Dan Askew, Grafton Beaman, Brian Beasley, Phyllis Bosomworth, Angela Cole, Rebecca Elliott, Brenda Lassiter, David Pureza, Rodney Walton and Matt Wood.

Tax-deductible contributions, made payable to the Northern Albemarle Community Foundation, can be mailed to the North Carolina Community Foundation, 3737 Glenwood Ave. Suite 460, Raleigh, NC 27612. Contributions can also be made online at nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has administered more than $130 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With nearly $247 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
