Yadkin County Community Foundation accepting grant applications

For immediate release -- 3/13/17

The board of advisors of the Yadkin County Community Foundation is currently accepting grant applications for projects funded from its community grantmaking fund, according to Lisa Drum, board president.

Funds are available for nonprofit organizations that serve general charitable needs in Yadkin County. Applications are available online beginning March 17. Visit nccommunityfoundation.org for information about applying. The deadline for submitting applications is noon April 18.

The Yadkin County Community Foundation is an affiliate of the North Carolina Community Foundation. The community grantmaking fund was established to support local charitable needs through annual grants. In addition to Drum, board members include: Robin Nance (secretary), Bonnie Lasky (grants chair), Andy Anderson, Dorothy Carter, Wayne Dixon, Tom Fagerli, Chris Funk, Hope Hardy, Darrell McCormick, Kenneth Reavis, Barbara Todd and John Willingham.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has made $116 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With more than $222 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
