Steigerwald joins NC Community Foundation's executive team

Marirose K. Steigerwald has joined the North Carolina Community Foundation executive team as director of operations, according to Jennifer Tolle Whiteside, NCCF president and CEO.

Steigerwald comes to NCCF with extensive experience in leadership development, administration and human resources. She was a partner in a consulting firm specializing in search and leadership development prior to NCCF. She is a graduate of UNC-Greensboro, where she majored in communication studies and minored in psychology.

Steigerwald has served in a leadership capacity in a number of organizations, including director of the Greater Raleigh Chamber of Commerce and past chair of the UNCG Alumni Association Board of Directors. She completed the Leadership NC Class XXI and is serving as class ambassador.

"Marirose brings incredible depth, expertise and experience to NCCF," Tolle Whiteside said. "I am thrilled she has joined our team."

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has made $101 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With more than $237 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with 60 affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance in 67 counties across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
