NC Community Foundation to host free grantseekers workshop

For immediate release – 2/14/18

Nonprofit organizations in Alexander, Caldwell and Catawba counties seeking grant funding from the North Carolina Community Foundation are invited to participate in a free granteekers workshop, according to Colby Martin, regional director.

The workshop will take place Tuesday, Feb. 27, at 1:00 p.m. at the Catawba Valley Community College Business and Industries building located at 2664 US Hwy 70 SE, Hickory, NC. The program will cover the grants application process for any nonprofit seeking grants from NCCF local affiliate funds including the Catawba Valley Community Foundation and the Unifour Foundation Endowment.

Participants will learn how to apply for grants through the NCCF online system and find out the key to a great proposal. Those interested in attending are asked to RSVP by July 11 to Sheila Cratch at scratch@nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has administered more than $130 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With nearly $247 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
