Currituck-Dare Community Foundation to host free grantseekers workshops

For immediate release – 4/16/18

Nonprofit organizations in Currituck and Dare counties seeking funding from the North Carolina Community Foundation and local affiliate foundation, the Currituck-Dare Community Foundation, are invited to participate in free grantseekers workshops.

The workshop will take place in both Currituck and Dare counties. In Dare County, the workshop will be held on Tuesday, May 15 from 1:30 – 2:30 p.m. at Duck Woods Country Club located at 50 S. Dogwoods Trail, Southern Shores. In Currituck County, the workshop will be held on Tuesday, May 15 from 5:30 – 6:30 p.m. at the TownBank of Currituck located at 250 Caratoke Hwy, Moyock. The program will cover the grants application process for any nonprofit seeking grants from NCCF local the Currituck-Dare Community Foundation.

Participants will learn how to apply for grants through the NCCF online system and find out the key to a great proposal. Sheila Davis, CDCF board president said the workshops are an important opportunity for local nonprofits. “We’re working to provide clarity around our grants process and funding allocations to our local nonprofit community,” she said. “We look forward to continuing to partner with these important local organization to make our community a better place to live and work.”

To RSVP or for further information, contact NCCF Regional Director Natalie Jenkins Peel at 252-562-9824 or npeel@nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the Currituck-Dare Community Foundation

The Currituck-Dare Community Foundation was founded in 1999 and is an affiliate of the North Carolina Community Foundation. CDCF is led by a local volunteer advisory board that helps build community assets through the creation of permanent endowments, makes grants and leverages leadership – all for the benefit of Currituck and Dare counties. In addition to Davies, board members include: Loismary Hoehne (vice president), Linda Algood (treasurer), Di Small (secretary), Janet Colegrove, Nina Foster, Scott Foster, Patty Guillaume, Cynthia Jarvis, Daniel La Rue, Vickie Smith Moore, Jane Oden, Hannah Robinson and Ginger Webster.

Tax-deductible contributions, made payable to the Currituck-Dare Community Foundation, can be mailed to the North Carolina Community Foundation, 3737 Glenwood Ave. Suite 460, Raleigh, NC 27612. Contributions can also be made online at nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has administered more than $130 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With nearly $247 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
