Greene County Community Foundation awards local grants

For immediate release -- 11/8/16

The board of advisors of the Greene County Community Foundation announced local grant awards from its community grantmaking fund at a ceremony hosted at the Greene County Museum today, according to Christie Mozingo, board president.

This year's nonprofit recipients include:

- Greene County Middle School Band
- Greene County Public Library
- Greene County Schools
- Make-A-Wish Eastern North Carolina
- Muscular Dystrophy Association
- Prevent Blindness North Carolina
- Snow Hill Primary

Mozingo thanked the community for its support of the Greene County Community Foundation. "These grants are important to our community and our quality of life," she said. "Critical programs would not be possible without the generosity of many individuals and organizations that have supported Greene County's community fund."

About the Greene County Community Foundation

The Greene County Community Foundation is an affiliate of the North Carolina Community Foundation. In addition to Mozingo, board members include: Michael Rhodes (vice-president), Faith Bynum (secretary-treasurer), Dora Pasour (immediate past president), Susan Beaman, Kathleen Bussell, Erika Churchill, Judy Davenport,

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has made $116 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With more than $222 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
