$50,000 in local grants

For immediate release -- 10/4/16

The board of advisors of the New Hanover County Community Foundation announces more than $50,000 in local grant awards from its community grantmaking fund, according to Eldridge Dodson, board president.

This year's nonprofit recipients include:

- "Bread for Life..."
- Brigade Boys & Girls Clubs
- Communities In Schools of Cape Fear
- Cucalorus Film Foundation
- DREAMS of Wilmington
- Family Promise of the Lower Cape Fear
- Girl Scouts - North Carolina Coastal Pines
- Kids Making It, Inc.
- Lower Cape Fear Hospice
- NourishNC Inc.
- Phoenix Hometown Hires
- Prevent Blindness North Carolina
- Reach Out and Read
- Wilmington Family YMCA

Dodson thanked the community for its support of the New Hanover County Community Foundation. "These grants are important to our community and our quality of life," she said. "Critical programs would not be possible without the generosity of many individuals and organizations that have supported New Hanover County's community fund."

About the New Hanover County Community Foundation

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has made $116 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With more than $222 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
