Greene County Community Foundation accepting grant applications

For immediate release

The board of directors of the Greene County Community Foundation will be accepting grant requests for community projects funded from its community fund during the summer of 2017, according to Nina Paul Vinson, Grants Chair.

Funds are available for nonprofit organizations that serve general charitable needs in Greene County.

Applications are available online only at nccommunityfoundation.org. Select “Apply for grants and scholarships” and follow the steps to the “Greene County” application.

The grant cycle will open on July 21 and continue through noon on Aug. 22.

The Greene County Community Foundation is an affiliate of the North Carolina Community Foundation (NCCF). The community fund was established to help support local charitable needs through annual grants.

Greene County Community Foundation Board members include: Christie Mazingo (Immediate Past President), Michael Rhodes (President), Ray Holloman (Vice President), Randy Davis (Secretary/Treasurer), Nina Paul Vinson (Grants Chair), Dora Pasour, Susan Beaman, Kathy Bussell, Faith Bynum, Erika Churchill, Judy Davenport, Laquita Davis, Beth Moye, Rebecca Pate, Jody Tyson, Rick Davis, Gloria Artis and Vanessa Hardy.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has made $116 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With more than $222 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF’s mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
