NC Community Foundation to host free grantseekers workshop

For immediate release – 3/26/18

Nonprofit organizations in Robeson County seeking grant funding from the North Carolina Community Foundation are invited to participate in a free grantseekers workshop, according to Anne Sorhagen, regional director.

The workshop will take place Wednesday, April 11 from 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at Robeson Partnership for Children located at 210 E 2nd St, Lumberton, NC 28358. The program will cover the grants application process for any nonprofit seeking grants from NCCF local affiliate the Robeson County Community Foundation.

Participants will learn how to apply for grants through the NCCF online system and find out the key to a great proposal. Those interested in attending are asked to RSVP by April 3 to Sorhagen at asorhagen@nccommunityfoundation.org.

For further information, contact Sorhagen at 910-202-6727 or asorhagen@nccommunityfoundation.org or visit the NCCF website at nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has administered more than $130 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With nearly $247 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
