

Priscilla Anne Edwards Endowment Scholarship Application

Purpose of Scholarship:

*This scholarship is given in loving memory of Priscilla Anne Edwards, the daughter of James and Regina Edwards, as a living memorial of her life. It was established in 2001 by family and friends to continue Priscilla's ministry of sharing her love of sports AND the gospel of Jesus Christ. The mission of this scholarship is to annually reward a graduating female athlete, participating in volleyball and/or softball, whose Christian faith closely exemplifies the life and witness of Priscilla Anne. This scholarship is managed by the North Carolina Community Foundation which provides for the professional management of local endowments.

Required Qualifications of Recipient:

*The recipient(s) of this scholarship must possess an encouraging and winning attitude in sports and in the classroom as well as being a leader on and off the playing field. She must also be accepted and enrolled at an institution of higher learning before she can receive this award.

*Three letters of recommendation are required with your application. You will need a letter from a member of your pastoral staff and from a teacher or a coach. The third letter can be from anyone in the community.

*All applications must be turned into the guidance office by Friday March 2, 2018. The applications will be picked up by the Edwards' on this day from the guidance office.
