=====

The Meeting took place at Agave Mexican Bar and Grill.

Ms. Hedrick talked about the planning for the Wendell Open House that would be taking place on December 4th. She said more than 16 businesses would be participating and that 3 businesses had donated prizes for the raffle. Ms. Rice suggested that they contact Las Tres Marias to make sure they were participating. She said she would contact Brown Bag Bagels to confirm they were participating before putting them on the advertising.

Ms. Hedrick said they were advertising through social media, individual stores, flyers, and signs on the day of the event. Ms. Rice said she would put together the raffle tickets, listing the participating stores in alphabetical order. She said she would put together the flyer and the signs as well.

Mr. White asked about trimming some of the overgrown trees at the Square. Commissioner Gray said that was being addressed by staff.

Ms. Rice said that Mr. Perry might not be able to represent the EDC on the Transportation Plan Subcommittee, and asked that each member think about whether they would be able to stand in his place.

Mr. Reidy talked about new businesses and development in Town.

The meeting was adjourned.
