

Nonprofit Learning Resources

The catalog of Nonprofit Learning Resources is a result of the nonprofit community's expressed interest in group learning. The list includes Triangle-based group learning opportunities related to nonprofit capacity building. These resources provide nonprofit organizations avenues to engage in capacity building to ensure the development and maintenance of the infrastructure necessary to fulfill their respective missions.

For information on how to register or apply for a specific training, click the organization's link.

Each of the organizations listed below provided Information detailed by audience, cost, format, subjects* and unique features.

- Blue Cross and Blue Shield of NC Foundation
- Duke University Nonprofit Management Program
- NC Center for Nonprofits
- NCSU Institute for Nonprofits
- United Way of the Greater Triangle

*Subjects are defined by six (6) key organizational development areas:

- Mission, Vision, and Strategy: Does the organization have a clear mission, and are strategies in alignment with this mission?
- Governance and Leadership: Does the organization have strong governance and foster leadership?
- Resource Development: Is the organization financially sustainable?
- Strategic Relationships: Does the organization have strong and positive relationships with external stakeholders?
- Internal Operations and Management: Does the organization have a strong and sound core infrastructure?
- Program Delivery and Impact: Is the organization effective in its delivery of programs and services, and is evaluation of impact integral to the organization?

Only organizations who gave authorization are included in this resource; further, we recognize that we may not have identified all providers of nonprofit trainings in the area. The John Rex Endowment does not screen listings, verify the accuracy of information presented, or make any endorsements or recommendations.

If your organization provides learning opportunities for nonprofits, and you would like to be added to this listing, or to edit your listing, please contact Gladys Hairston (Gladys Hairston).
