

Thursday, July 21, 2022

Statement from former North Carolina Supreme Court Justice Bob Orr:

“The vagueness and unclear use of terms in this statute plus its chilling effect on political free speech by candidates would, in my opinion, violate 1st Amendment guarantees. No wonder it has never been used before and only now is having to be challenged.”

###