2015 Mount Veeder

Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon

After 22 years sourcing their Mt. Veeder Cabernet Sauvignon from the Pym Rae Vineyard, the 2015 will be their final bottling from the late Robin Williams' 19-acre property.

A towering wine of tremendous tannin structure coupled with dense color. Classic Mount Veeder markers are present in force; dried cocoa, pencil shaving, cassis, and mountain violet are woven into this tightly wound wine.

2015 Affinity Napa Valley Estate Cabernet Sauvignon

Startling for its sheer size and weight. The older vines deliver classic black raspberry, licorice, espresso bean and crushed stones in the nose and on the palate. The tiny yields are responsible for the intensity of the color and structure this year. The Merlot, Cabernet Franc, Petit Verdot and Malbec help to give the Cabernet Sauvignon a lovely plushness and roundness in the middle. James Suckling Rating: 94

Estimated Value: $845

2012 Signature Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon

Exhibits beautiful layers of blueberry and black cherry aromas mingled with bittersweet cocoa, cinnamon and cigar box. Rich and dense on the palate with blackberry, dried fig and anise flavors, the wine is further enhanced by savory and earthbound elements of dried sage and French roast coffee. The tannins are firm, refined and mineral laden, offering a complete, long-term and rewarding wine experience.

2013 Signature Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon

Balances highly aromatic, well-delineated Mount Veeder fruit with saturated flavors, polish and poise. Generous and concentrated on the palate, this dynamic wine delivers its signature of savory blueberry and blackberry fruit, freshly ground espresso and aromas of anise, dried sage and cigar-box. A satisfyingly persistent finish of dark fruits unfolds to reveal notes of graphite, toasted hazelnut and seamless, finely-knit tannins.

2014 Signature Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon

Exhibits remarkable balance and freshness. Showing exuberance and plushness on the palate, its power stroke is its density of fruit and delineated character. Impressive on entry, the wine is brimming with dark fruits—black cherry, savory blueberry and cola are wrapped in an earthy ribbon of bittersweet cocoa, espresso and hints of vanilla. The palate is gorgeously textured and lively, revealing sweet herbal notes of anise, dried sage and tobacco.

field, you'll follow the timber that's turned into hard hitting history during the factory tour, and you can also visit the galleries filled with remarkable memorabilia and entertaining interactive exhibits. For some, the sport of baseball is larger than life - at the museum, it's actually true when you visit the steel Big Bat, the world's largest baseball bat, weighing in at 68,000 pounds and towering 120 feet into the sky, which is also an exact-scale replica of Babe Ruth's 34-inch Louisville Slugger bat. What's the scoop on The Big Glove? Climb on, crawl through and slide down this giant (17 ton), prehistoric ball glove, handcrafted from 450-million-year-old Kentucky limestone. See and touch thousands of signatures from players who signed contracts with Louisville Slugger, the same signatures that were burned into their bats. Get in the game at Bud's Batting Cage, then find out how fast you can throw in the simulated pitching and hitting experience! As if all that wasn't enough, the Louisville Slugger Museum & Factory lets you hold bats that were used by the greatest players in baseball, including Mickey Mantle, Johnny Bench, David Ortiz and Derek Jeter, just to name a few!
