

WILLOW OAK RUN APARTMENTS

RESIDENT SELECTION PLAN

June 1, 2024

A United Property Management, LLC (“UPM”) Community

This property is a family housing complex. The term “family” includes, but is not limited to the following, regardless of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status: 1. a single person, who may be an elderly person, displaced person, disabled person, near-elderly person or any other single person; or 2. a group of persons residing together, which such group may include, but is not limited to: (i) a family with or without children (a child who is temporarily away from the home because of placement in foster care is a member of the family); (ii) an elderly family; (iii) a near-elderly family; (iv) a disabled family; (v) a displaced family; or (vi) the remaining member of a tenant family, as any such terms may be defined by the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended (24 CFR 5.403, 24 CFR 945.105), or any similar applicable statute or regulation.

APPLICATION PROCESSING

In General

Applications for occupancy are taken on a first come, first serve basis. An application must be completed in full, dated and signed by the applicant. Everyone who will be living in the unit must be listed on the application. The property manager will note on the application the date and time the completed application is received. A non-refundable application processing fee of $30.00 will be charged for each adult over the age of 18 listed on the application (subject to NC DHHS restrictions discussed below). All minimum income calculations will be based on the applicant’s out of pocket rental payment and utility allowance (if any). Current income limits are posted in the leasing office and copies are available upon request.

Using the applicable addresses found on the application, an application may be: (i) dropped off at, mailed to, faxed to, or e-mailed to the leasing office on site at the property; or (ii) mailed or e-mailed to the UPM corporate office.

Preferences and Priorities

Reliance on state and/or federal housing vouchers will not be grounds to deny an application. The property participates in a state program (the “Target Program”) in which a minimum of ten percent (10%) and a maximum of twenty percent (20%) of the units in the property are set aside as they become available to house eligible applicants receiving a referral from the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services (“NC DHHS”). Until the aforementioned percentages of units are reached, qualified applicants in the Target Program will be offered units ahead of any other simultaneous applicant or anyone else on the waiting list; and until such percentages are reached, each vacant unit will be set aside for the Target Program until the earlier of: (a) the attempts by the housing coordinator administering the Target Program have exhausted all applicants, or (b) thirty (30) days from vacancy. Priority runs in line with the priority criteria set forth within the Target Program. Furthermore, application fees will not be charged for applicants referred by NC DHHS through the Target Program.

Applicants are selected for various rent and income levels at the property (if applicable), based on income and the date and time their application was received. When a lower rent level becomes available, it may be assigned to the current household who is paying the highest percentage of income toward rent. This determination will be based on the most recent completed certification.

Student Status Regulations

There are Section 42 eligibility requirements that must be met regarding households comprised entirely of Full-time students. If applicants are all full-time students, then they will need to discuss the composition of their household and any determinative issues affecting student tenancy with the property manager. A Household where all members are full-time students is ineligible for residency unless the household falls in any one of these exceptions.

- All members are married and entitled to file a joint tax return.
- The household is comprised of a single parent(s) with minor children where neither the parent nor at least one child is claimed as dependents on someone else’s tax return other than the absent parent of the children.
- The household receives Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF).
- The student participates in a program receiving assistance under the Job Training Partnership Act, Workforce Investment Act, or similar federal, state, or local program.
- The student was previously in foster care.

Preliminary Eligibility/Waiting List

Upon receipt of an application, UPM will review the information provided by the applicant on their application to confirm eligibility in conjunction with the program guidelines (i.e. age, income limits, family composition, student requirements, citizenship, etc.). Upon completion of such review, the applicant will be notified of his/her status. If eligible, the applicant is notified that based on the information provided, they meet the preliminary eligibility requirements for housing, subject to verification of the information provided on the application, as well as satisfactory credit and criminal background checks. This notification also advises the applicant that their application will proceed with processing for a vacant unit or if there are no current vacancies.

If no units are currently available, applicants will be placed on a waiting list in an order corresponding to the time and date the completed application was received by the property manager. UPM reserves the right to remove an applicant from a waitlist if their circumstances materially change making them otherwise ineligible for tenancy (i.e. income level increases over limits, criminal conviction occurs, etc.). The waiting list is never closed. All applications are processed and approved applications are placed on the waiting list. The property may have a separate waiting list for each income level.

Denial

If denied or determined ineligible, which denial or determination shall be based solely on the written criteria specified in this Resident Selection Plan, the applicant will be notified in writing the reasons for the denial and of their right to appeal, in writing, to UPM within 14 days of such notification. Should an applicant desire to appeal a denial, they will be required to submit additional information which would have a bearing on the negative decision. Such information could be, but is not limited to; receipts for satisfaction of debts that cause a negative credit decision, documentation related to criminal decisions that could have a bearing on the information provided or verified by the reporting agency, landlord or personal references, etc. The additional information will be reviewed by UPM, and applicant notified in writing of the final decision of the appeal within ten (10) days of UPM's receipt of the additional information.

Final Approval

Upon receipt of all verifications and background checks, management will determine if the applicant remains eligible. If eligible, the applicant is notified that they have been approved for occupancy, are notified as to whether a vacant unit exists or they will be placed on a waiting list, and are asked to contact management to arrange for occupancy.

Following the issuance of said notice, if a vacant unit exists, selected applicants have five (5) days to present their security deposit and first month's rent to secure their unit. If a vacant unit is available and the aforementioned deposit and rent is not timely received, then the unit will become available to other applicants.

If the applicant is placed on a waitlist, the applicant will be notified when a vacant unit becomes available for their spot on the waitlist. Following the issuance of said notice, selected applicants have five (5) days to present their security deposit and first month's rent to secure their unit. If a waitlist exists and the aforementioned deposit and rent is not timely received, then the selected applicants will revert to the end of the waitlist and the next applicant on the waitlist will be offered the unit.

Apartments will be assigned to applicants according to the order in which the applications are approved and the security deposit and first month's rent is received; regardless of the date application was received, or the income tier of the applicant

(50%). If a waitlist exists applicants will be removed from the waitlist and assigned units as they come available in accordance with this same priority. Notwithstanding the foregoing, approved applicants referred by NC DHHS through the Target Program may be assigned units ahead of other applicants who may already be on a waitlist.

SCREENING GUIDELINES

Criminal

UPM will conduct criminal background checks on all adults over the age of 18 listed on an application. If the criminal background report reveals negative information about an applicant and UPM proposes to deny tenancy due to the negative information, the subject of the record (and the primary applicant, if different) will be provided notice of the proposed denial and an opportunity to: (1) dispute the accuracy of the record, (2) present mitigating information, and/or (3) request a reasonable accommodation if the criminal activity was related to a disability. The notice will include the name, address, and telephone number of the agency that composed the criminal record report and inform the applicant of his or her right to dispute the accuracy of the criminal record report as well as his or her right to a free copy of the report. If the applicant does not contact UPM to dispute the accuracy of the criminal record within ten (10) days of the notice, then UPM will send a final notice of ineligibility to the applicant stating the specific reason for tenancy denial. If the applicant is unable to timely dispute the accuracy of the criminal record report due to a disability but instead notifies UPM of said disability and requests a reasonable accommodation to present such dispute, then UPM may provide a reasonable extension of time.

If an applicant has been convicted of a felony offense involving the sale or manufacture of a controlled substance, then UPM:

- Will deny admission if the conviction, or exit from incarceration, occurred within five (5) years of application;
- May deny admission if the conviction, or exit from incarceration, occurred more than five (5) years but within ten (10) years of application; and
- Will not deny admission if the conviction, or exit from incarceration, occurred more than ten (10) years before application.

If an applicant has been convicted of a violent felony offense*, then UPM:

- Will deny admission if the conviction, or exit from incarceration, occurred within five (5) years of application; and
- May deny admission if the conviction, or exit from incarceration, occurred more than five (5) years before application.

If an applicant has been convicted of a nonviolent felony offense, then UPM:

- May deny admission if the conviction, or exit from incarceration, occurred within seven (7) years of application; and
- Will not deny admission if the conviction, or exit from incarceration, occurred more than seven (7) years before application.

If an applicant has been convicted of a violent misdemeanor offense, then UPM:

- Will deny admission if the conviction, or exit from incarceration, occurred within two (2) years of application; and
- May deny admission if the conviction, or exit from incarceration, occurred more than two (2) years before application.

If an applicant has been convicted of a nonviolent misdemeanor offense*, then UPM:

- May deny admission if the conviction, or exit from incarceration, occurred within five (5) years of the application; and
- Will not deny admission if the conviction, or exit from incarceration, occurred more than five (5) years before the application.

* A violent felony is a Class A, B, C, D, E, F, or G felony, or any felony requiring registration on the sex offender registry.

 A nonviolent felony is a class H or I felony.

 A violent misdemeanor is a Class A1 misdemeanor or a misdemeanor requiring registration on the sex offender registry.

* A nonviolent misdemeanor is a Class 1, 2, or 3 misdemeanor.

In any instance where UPM “may deny” admission based on a criminal conviction or pending criminal charge, UPM will conduct an individualized assessment of the criminal record and its impact on the applicant household’s suitability for admission. The individualized assessment will include consideration of the following factors: (1) the seriousness of the criminal offense; (2) the relationship between the criminal offense and the safety and security of residents, staff, or property; (3) the length of time since the offense, with particular weight being given to significant periods of good behavior; (4) the age of the applicable applicant at the time of the offense; (5) the number and nature of any other criminal convictions; (6) evidence of rehabilitation, such as employment, participation in a job training program, education, participation in a drug or alcohol treatment program, or recommendation from a parole or probation officer, employer, teacher, social worker, or community leader; and (7) tenancy supports or other risk mitigation services the applicant will be receiving during tenancy.

UPM will not consider an arrest or charge that was resolved without conviction, nor will UPM consider expunged or sealed convictions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, UPM may deny admission if an applicant has charges pending at the time of application. Reasonable accommodations will be considered where a criminal conviction is related to a disability.

Credit

UPM may run credit reports on all adults over the age of 18 listed on an application. The credit report must demonstrate that the applicant has paid financial obligations as agreed. The application may be rejected if the report demonstrates a history of bad credit with no effort to address the bad credit. Student loans and medical debts are not looked upon negatively. Examples of unfavorable credit history:

- Landlord collections or utility collections within the last five (5) years. The applicant must provide written proof that any outstanding balances are paid in full prior to consideration.
- Any eviction records within the last five (5) years (including judgments and dismissals, particularly if a habitual pattern is shown).
- Any legal items (including tax lien, repossession, or other public records) against the applicant that are less than three (3) years old.
- Bankruptcy that is less than three (3) years old (unless discharged or good credit established since).
- Foreclosure of a previously owned home within the last three (3) years.
- Failure to be in good standing with local utility companies (electric, gas, and/or water; excluding cable and internet).

The credit screening criteria will be waived for applicants – including additional household members, if any – participating in programs or receiving assistance which provides UPM with the ability to recover any economic losses related to the tenancy (i.e. risk mitigation tools such as HUD Special Claims and Targeting Program Special Claims).

Landlord Reference

A satisfactory rental history is required. Any applicant who has been evicted for nonpayment of rent, damages, or material noncompliance may not be accepted. Any applicant who owes past due funds to a previous landlord may be rejected until all funds have been paid in full (proof of payment required). Other examples of unfavorable rental history are late rental payments, disturbances or complaints from other residents, and bad housekeeping. Notwithstanding the foregoing, negative landlord references will not be held against applicants participating in any programs or receiving assistance which provides UPM with the ability to recover any economic losses related to the tenancy.

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

A “reasonable accommodation” is a change in rules, policies or practices or a change in the way services are provided to accommodate a legitimate disability. With a few exceptions, the Fair Housing Act (FHA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) require landlords to grant reasonable accommodations in order to enable a person with a disability to have an equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling unit or any of a development’s public areas.

Applicants and tenants, at any time, may ask for a reasonable accommodation with regard to any rule, policy or procedure, as long as the need for the requested change is linked to a disability. The Reasonable Accommodation Request Form which is available from the property manager, is the preferred form upon which to request a reasonable accommodation; however such form is not required and the applicant/tenant may request the reasonable accommodation in any manner reasonably conveying the request. The request will be reviewed and the “reasonableness” determined in order to grant approval. Reasonable Accommodations are usually able to be reviewed and a determination reached within fourteen (14) days of submission by the resident/applicant, and an available unit will be held while the request is under review. If the request for reasonable accommodation is denied, a unit (if available) will be held for three (3) days for the applicant to appeal a decision.

COMPLIANCE WITH STATE & FEDERAL LAW

Fair Housing Compliance

It is UPM’s intention to comply with the federal Fair Housing Act, which prohibits “any preference, limitation, or discrimination because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin, or intention to make such preference, limitation or discrimination.” UPM intends to comply with all similarly applicable state and federal laws concerning housing, including but not limited to the 1988 Fair Housing Amendments, the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Americans with Disabilities Act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Equal Credit Opportunity Act.

VAWA

On March 7, 2013, President Obama signed into law the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (Pub. L. 113–4, 127 Stat. 54) (VAWA 2013). UPM complies with the VAWA regulations. For more information regarding VAWA regulations and how they may pertain to you and your application/tenancy at a UPM community, you can obtain the documentation outlining VAWA at Federal Register /Vol. 78, No. 151.

Limited English Proficiency

UPM takes reasonable steps to ensure meaningful access to the property and its programs by people with Limited English Proficiency (“LEP”). If any applicant possesses LEP and feels that Oral Language Services and/or Written Language Services are necessary for their application process, then they should notify the property manager. For further information about LEP requirements applicable to public housing, please see the final guidance issued by the Department of Housing and Urban Development at <https://www.gpo.gov/fdsys/pkg/FR-2007-01-22/pdf/07-217.pdf>

MISCELLANEOUS

Pet Policy

All UPM properties are pet free, except for service and therapy animals approved as part of a reasonable accommodation request.

Smoking Policy

All UPM properties constructed after 2015 are completely smoke-free, as required by applicable law. For pre-2015 properties, please see the property manager for specific information regarding smoking.

Transfer Policy

Residents are permitted to transfer for changes in family size, accessibility issues, and/or for medical reasons. The transfer request will be processed as a new application in accordance with the procedures outlined above. If a resident would like to transfer as a result of a disability, the resident should submit an accommodation request in accordance with the procedures outlined above.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

Don't risk your chances for residency in LIHTC housing by providing false, incomplete, or inaccurate information on your application and recertification forms.

Purpose This is to inform you that there is certain information you must provide when applying for affordable housing. There are penalties that apply if you knowingly omit information or give false information.

Penalties for Committing Fraud The United State Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) places a high priority on preventing fraud. If your application or recertification forms contain false or incomplete information, you may be:

- Rejected as an applicant, or possibly evicted from your apartment;
- Required to repay all overpaid rental assistance you may have received;
- Prohibited from receiving future assistance or housing

Your state and local governments may have other laws and penalties as well.

Asking Questions When you sit down with the person that reviews your application, you should know what is expected of you. If you do not understand something, say so. That person can answer your question or find out what the answer is.

Completing the Application When you give your answers to application questions, you must include the following information:

Income

- All sources of money you and any member of your family receive (wages, welfare payments, alimony, social security, pension, etc.);
 - Any money you receive on behalf of your children (child support, social security for children, etc.)
 - Income from assets (interest from savings or checking accounts, or certificates of deposit, dividends from stocks, 401K, etc.);
 - Earnings from second job or part time job;
 - Any anticipated income (such as bonus or pay raise you expect to receive.)

In order to process your application with the least amount of delays, please read the information on these pages carefully and provide ALL information requested. Missing or inaccurate forms or information will delay the processing of your application, and could result in an unnecessary delay in your acceptance and move into your new apartment home. Be proactive...be sure to bring all the requested information!

WHAT YOU WILL NEED....

Thank you for visiting our property! For us to begin processing your application, we must have the following for ALL family members.

PROOF OF BIRTH DATE AND HOUSEHOLD COMPOSITION

For all adult household members, you will need to provide a driver's license or state-issued identification card. For all minor household members you will need to provide a birth certificate.

PROOF OF SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER

You must provide proof of a social security number for all household members. You will need to provide Social Security cards or other legal documents which contain the Social Security number. If a household member does not have a Social Security number, we must have proof that one has been requested, or must have documentation of another federally issued identification number. For example, a number assigned by the Immigration & Naturalization Service.

In order to process your application, we will also need the items shown below that apply to you or anyone who will be living in the apartment.

EMPLOYMENT

Each employed household member must provide the last 8 consecutive pay stubs from their employer or employers. If you are unable to obtain your last 8 consecutive paystubs, all adult household members who are employed must sign a Verification of Employment form giving us permission to verify their gross anticipated earnings for the next 12 months with their employer.

SELF EMPLOYMENT

We must have a copy of the most recent Federal income tax return filed for the business, OR a NOTARIZED statement from your accountant or bookkeeper stating the anticipated NET income of the business for the next 12 months. We will also ask you to complete a Self-Employed Affidavit stating the anticipated income of the business along with any salaries paid to family members.

ASSETS*

Checking Accounts- we must know the AVERAGE SIX MONTH BALANCE and the annual interest rate, if any. Please provide your last 6 consecutive Checking Account statements

Savings Accounts- we must know the CURRENT BALANCE and the annual interest rate, if any. Please provide your last Savings Account Statement.

Stocks, bonds, IRAs, and other financial holdings- we must know the CURRENT CASH VALUE and the ANTICIPATED INCOME for the next 12 months. This must include the cash value of any universal or whole life insurance policies. Please provide the most recent statements for these accounts.

Real Estate- we must have a copy of the most recent property tax appraisal and documentation from the mortgage holder showing the cost to pay off any remaining mortgage balance.

If the household assets are $5,000 or greater, we must verify all asset amounts. This will require you to sign statements giving us permission to verify this information, or you may bring in documentation such as statements or print-outs from a bank or broker to verify the asset amounts. Some properties are required to verify ALL household assets, regardless of value.

RETIREMENT/401k ACCOUNTS

You will need to bring in your most recent statements for these accounts. Some accounts are not accessible until retirement or loss of employment, you will need to provide statements for your accounts that are accessible at any time, for clarification please discuss with your leasing agent.

SINGLE PARENTS

If you have a court order for child support, we need a copy of the court order from the Court House or the office of Child Support Enforcement that is not more than 90 days old. If arrears are also being paid, we need to know how much the arrears payments are and how long they are anticipated to continue.

If you receive child support that is NOT court ordered, we need a statement from the person paying the support that lists the amount and frequency of the payments. If you are unable to safely obtain a statement from the person paying the non-court ordered support, you will be required to complete a self-affidavit attesting to the amount of support you receive on the behalf of your child or children.

If you DO NOT receive child support, you will need to sign a Verification of Not Receiving Child Support Form.

CUSTODY OF SOMEONE ELSE'S CHILDREN

If you have custody of someone else's child(ren), we must have a copy of a court order granting custody or a notarized statement from the parent granting custody. The notarized statement should state the length of time that the child will be in your custody.

REGULAR CONTRIBUTIONS FROM OTHER PERSONS

If you receive regular monetary contributions from persons who will not live in the apartment, we will need a Recurring Gift statement from them stating the amount and frequency of contributions.

SOCIAL SECURITY, SSI, AFDC, TANF

We will need a benefit print out from the office providing the assistance that lists the GROSS AMOUNT of your award before deductions. If you have amounts deducted due to an overpayment, we will need to know the amount of the deduction and when the overpayment will be recovered.

DISABILITY

We will need a benefit print out from the office making the payments stating the GROSS amount of the benefit and the number of payments anticipated during the next 12 months.

VETERAN'S ADMINISTRATION PENSIONS, OTHER PENSIONS AND ANNUITIES

We will need a statement from the agency/company who oversees the pension stating the GROSS AMOUNT and the frequency of the payments.

UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION, WORKER'S COMPENSATION

We will need a Wage & Determination transcript or benefits statement from the applicable agency stating the GROSS monthly benefit and the anticipated duration of benefits.

STUDENTS

There are particular requirements for households made up entirely of full-time students. If you are a student, you maybe required to bring in class schedules, tax returns, or other documentation from your school in order to prove that you are qualified to occupy a tax credit apartment.
