EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT

on Biltmore Estate™
SEPTEMBER 17, 2019 | ASHEVILLE, NC

©2019 The Biltmore Company

Employee turnover is expensive: According to recent studies, losing one full-time employee in a professional services organization can cost as much as 125% of that position's salary. With over 11% average turnover in professional services and the job market becoming increasingly competitive, retaining exceptional employees has become every leader's job.

How can your firm succeed in retaining employees? By crafting a culture of engagement. Engagement is more than job satisfaction – it's living and breathing the company culture to create real competitive advantages. In this one-day session, build an engagement strategy your firm can implement immediately, learning from Biltmore's strategies that have granted us one of the lowest turnover rates in hospitality.
