PRESS RELEASE

Franklin Offers New Fraud Detection Alert System

Newest Service Offered by Register of Deeds Office

Franklin County, June 22, 2020: Franklin County's Register of Deeds Office now offers a new system to help citizens better combat fraudulent activity. Register of Deeds Brandi S. Brinson recently introduced the Fraud Detection Notification service to alert citizens when documents are recorded in the office matching their names.

Citizens can sign up for this free monitoring service in just moments with ease by providing your name, email address and up to five names you wish to monitor for document filings. Once registration is complete, the system will send alerts via email when any documents, such as powers of attorney or deeds, are filed with the Register of Deeds Office. In order to register for this free service, visit www.franklincountync.us/services/register-of-deeds and click on "Fraud Detection Notification."

For more information about the Fraud Detection Notification system, contact Brandi S. Brinson at 919-496-3500.
