We've received additional information about the processing of felony disclosures for sheriff candidates from the North Carolina Sheriffs' Education and Training Standards Commission. The office located at the North Carolina Department of Justice (NCDNJ) that processes the disclosure requests and provides the Disclosure Statements to sheriff candidates, which the candidates must provide at filing.

In an effort to further clarify and ease the process, the Commission has updated its website to include the information attached. <https://ncdoj.gov/law-enforcement-training/sheriffs/> (Webpage Summary doc offers links to the other forms and instructions on the website).

We wanted to pass this on to you in hopes that it might help with any questions you may get from candidates. You can also direct candidates with questions to Diane Konopka, the director of the Commission, whose can be reached at 919-662-4375 and dkonopka@ncdoj.gov.

Thank you
