

MARCH 27, 1992

The Board of Commissioners of Franklin County, North Carolina met in a special work session at 3:00 P. M. in the Conference Room of the Franklin County Office Building with the following Commissioners present: Chairman Robert L. Swanson, Vice Chairman James G. Hardy, Commissioner Harry L. Foy, Jr., Commissioner Ronald W. Goswick and Commissioner George T. Wynne.

The purpose of this special work session to discuss law enforcement center and the E911 project.

Sheriff Robert Redmond and County Manager Bruce Radford updated the Board regarding the selection process of a building site for the law enforcement center. The Board discussed various ways of financing the proposed new facility.

Kermit Hoyle, Franklin County Building Inspector, was present and discussed possible use of the Agriculture Extension Office as sheriff's department and communications center.

Angie Callihan, James Satterwhite, Richard Reid and Timmy Smith, members of the Communications Committee were present to discuss where the communications center will be and needs associated with the process of establishing the E911 in Franklin County.

There being no further business to come before the Board, adjournment recorded at 6:00 P. M.