

JOHNSTON COUNTY
COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

an affiliate of
NORTH CAROLINA COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Frances Finch Hobart Award for Voluntary Community Service

The Johnston County Community Foundation is pleased to announce the 2022 selection process for the Frances Finch Hobart Award for Voluntary Community Service. This award was established in 2006 to recognize persons for their commitment to voluntary community service.

The award is presented annually to an individual from Johnston County who has demonstrated a commitment to serving his/her community resulting in a stronger community in which to live, work, and enjoy life.

The recipient of this award shall possess the ability to help others solve social problems by giving of his/her time, talent and energy. This person shall demonstrate an actual accomplishment achieved through the work of volunteering, that through his/her volunteering a community need has been met. The person shall manifest the ability to mobilize other volunteers and display a willingness for on-going involvement. The recipient shall demonstrate vision, vitality, determination, selflessness, generosity, and a full, caring heart.

This year's recipient will be publicly recognized along with the 2022 Johnston County Community Foundation grant recipients and will be asked to select a local non-profit to receive a $2,000.00 grant from the Frances Finch Hobart Award for Voluntary Community Service Fund.

Instructions for Submitting an Application

- Complete the Nomination Form
- Attach a listing of all the agencies/organizations the nominee has volunteered for and the dates of service
- Return completed nomination packet by November 30, 2022.
- Email to Kelly Lee, NCCF Program Officer, at klee@nccommunityfoundation.org

