About the Beaufort-Hyde Community Foundation

An affiliate of the North Carolina Community Foundation, the Beaufort-Hyde Community Foundation is a growing family of philanthropic funds, source of grants for local causes and partners for donors. The BHCF was founded in 2001 and is led by a local volunteer advisory board that helps build community assets through the creation of permanent endowments, makes grants and leverages leadership—all for the benefit of Beaufort and Hyde counties.

The BHCF board advises the Beaufort-Hyde Community Fund, the unrestricted community grantmaking fund, to support local needs. This competitive grants program is held annually. Advisory board members live and work in Beaufort and Hyde counties, putting them in a position to strategically leverage resources, meet local needs and access opportunities. In addition to O’Neal, board members include: Bill Rich (vice president), Buffy Johnson (secretary-treasurer), Read Allen, Lee Brimmage, Charles Edwards, Nicole Howard, Marcy Morgan, Bethany Pugh, William Tyler and Beth Wilder.

The BHCF, through the NCCF, makes it easy to become a philanthropist, whatever your means or charitable goals. You can open an endowment for your favorite cause at any time – or contribute to an existing fund in any amount.
