NORTH CAROLINA COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Community grants available from the Brunswick County Community Foundation

The board of advisors of the Brunswick County Community Foundation is currently accepting grant applications from area nonprofits that serve general needs in the local community.

Funds are available for nonprofit organizations that serve general community needs in Brunswick County. Grants will be awarded from the community grantmaking fund. Applications are available online beginning March 1. Visit nccommunityfoundation.org for information about applying. The deadline for applications is noon April 2.

“This is a great opportunity for local nonprofits to expand their impact in our community,” said Barbara Patten, BCCF board president. “We are excited to partner with nonprofit leaders to create lasting change in the community.”

For further information, contact NCCF Regional Director Anne Sorhagen at 910-202-6727 or asorhagen@nccommunityfoundation.org or visit the NCCF website at nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the Brunswick County Community Foundation

An affiliate of the North Carolina Community Foundation, the Brunswick County Community Foundation is a growing family of philanthropic funds, source of grants for local causes and partners for donors. The BCCF was founded in 1997 and is led by a local volunteer advisory board that helps build community assets through the creation of permanent endowments, makes grants and leverages leadership—all for the benefit of Brunswick County.

The BCCF board advises the Brunswick County Community Fund, the unrestricted community grantmaking fund, to support local needs. This competitive grants program is held annually. Advisory board members live and work in Brunswick County, putting them in a position to strategically leverage resources, meet local needs and access opportunities. In addition to Patten, board members include: Julie Wolfe (secretary-treasurer), Cindy Cheatham, Mike Gildea, Heather Holbrook, Haylie Long, Franklin Rouse, Mary Walton and Justin Wolfe.

The BCCF, through the NCCF, makes it easy to become a philanthropist, whatever your means or charitable goals. You can open an endowment for your favorite cause at any time – or contribute to an existing fund in any amount. Tax-deductible contributions, made payable to the Brunswick County Community Foundation, can be mailed to the North Carolina Community Foundation, 3737 Glenwood Ave. Suite 460, Raleigh, NC 27612. Contributions can also be made online at nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has administered more than $145 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With more than $270 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,300 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels. For more information, visit nccommunityfoundation.org.
