NORTH CAROLINA COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Community grants available from the Duplin County Community Foundation

The board of advisors of the Duplin County Community Foundation is currently accepting grant applications from area nonprofits that serve general needs in the local community.

Funds are available for nonprofit organizations that serve general community needs in Duplin County. Grants will be awarded from the community grantmaking fund. Applications are available online beginning March 29. Visit nccommunityfoundation.org for information about applying. The deadline for applications is noon April 30.

“This is a great opportunity for local nonprofits to expand their impact in our community,” said Bob Kornegay, DCCF board president. “We are excited to partner with nonprofit leaders to create lasting change in the community.”

For further information, contact NCCF Regional Director Anne Sorhagen at 919-202-6727 or asorhagen@nccommunityfoundation.org or visit the NCCF website at nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the Duplin County Community Foundation

An affiliate of the North Carolina Community Foundation, the Duplin County Community Foundation is a growing family of philanthropic funds, source of grants for local causes and partners for donors. The DCCF was founded in 2005 and is led by a local volunteer advisory board that helps build community assets through the creation of permanent endowments, makes grants and leverages leadership—all for the benefit of Duplin County.

The DCCF board advises the Duplin County Community Fund, the unrestricted community grantmaking fund, to support local needs. This competitive grants program is held annually. Advisory board members live and work in Duplin County, putting them in a position to strategically leverage resources, meet local needs and access opportunities. In addition to Kornegay, board members include: Debra Morrissey (vice president), Jayme Jones (treasurer), Brittainy Kidlow (secretary), Wayne Branch, Kimberly Butler, Francisco Diaz, Ed Emory, Todd Minchew, Linda Smith and Florence Webb-Becton.

The DCCF, through the NCCF, makes it easy to become a philanthropist, whatever your means or charitable goals. You can open an endowment for your favorite cause at any time – or contribute to an existing fund in any amount. Tax-deductible contributions, made payable to the Duplin County Community Foundation, can be mailed to the North Carolina Community Foundation, 3737 Glenwood Ave. Suite 460, Raleigh, NC 27612. Contributions can also be made online at nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has administered more than $145 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With more than $270 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,300 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels. For more information, visit nccommunityfoundation.org
