Haywood County Community Foundation awards $3,700 in local grants

For immediate release—11/7/18

The board of advisors of the Haywood County Community Foundation recently announced $3,700 in local grant awards from the community grantmaking fund, according to Clay Dangerfield, board president.

This year the board granted:

- $500 to Haywood Christian Ministry, Inc. for expedited client assistance
- $500 to Blue Ridge Health for prenatal services for Haywood County
- $1,200 to The Community Kitchen for the Feeding/Bathing the Needy of Haywood County program
- $500 to Mountain Projects for medical prescriber's training on treating pain safer
- $500 to The North Carolina Arboretum Society for the ecoEXPLORE in Haywood County program
- $500 to the Thirtieth Judicial District Domestic Violence-Sexual Assault Alliance, Inc. for the Immigrant Outreach Project

Dangerfield thanked the community for its support of the Haywood County Community Foundation. "We are proud to support these nonprofit programs that are so vital to the community," he said. "We are grateful to the many generous individuals and organizations that have supported the Haywood County Community Foundation and our work to inspire philanthropy across our community."

About the Haywood County Community Foundation

The Haywood County Community Foundation was founded in 1994 and is an affiliate of the North Carolina Community Foundation. HCCF is led by a local volunteer advisory board that helps build community assets through the creation of permanent endowments, makes grants and leverages leadership – all for the benefit of the Haywood County. In addition to Dangerfield, board members include: Wilma Boatwright, James Bromley, Gary Lance and Thomas Kip Ray.

Tax-deductible contributions, made payable to the Haywood County Community Foundation, can be mailed to the North Carolina Community Foundation, 3737 Glenwood Ave. Suite 460, Raleigh, NC 27612. Contributions can also be made online at nccommunityfoundation.org.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has administered more than $145 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With more than $270 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,300 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
