

East Coast Greenway

Triangle Region, NC

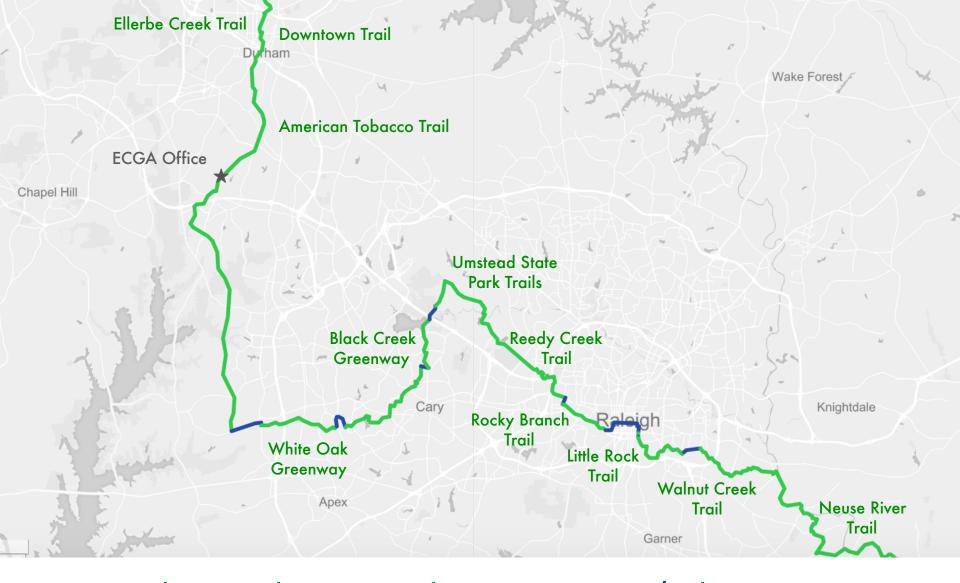

A linear park for everyone.

Connecting people and places, Maine to Florida

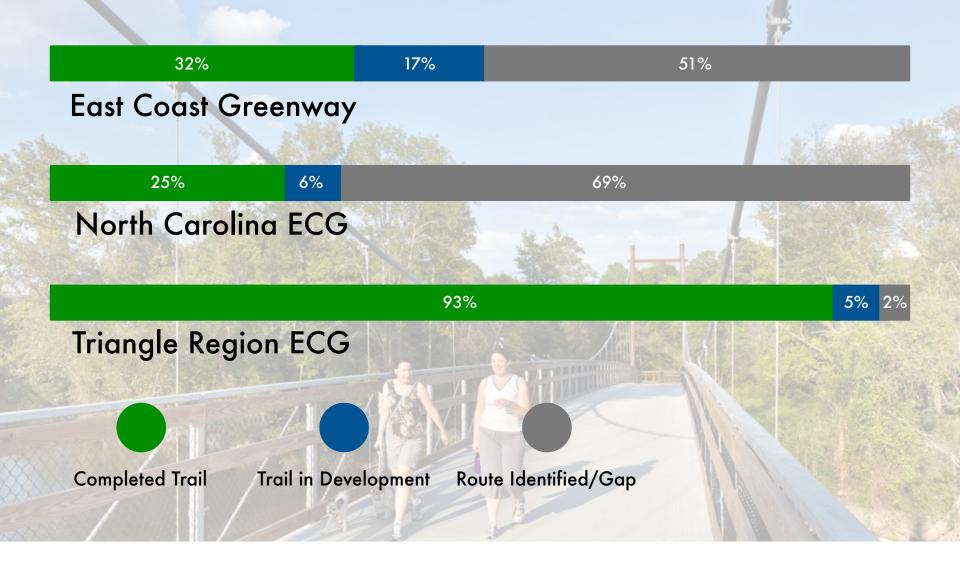

At 3,000 miles, the East Coast Greenway will be the longest connected biking and walking route in the United States.

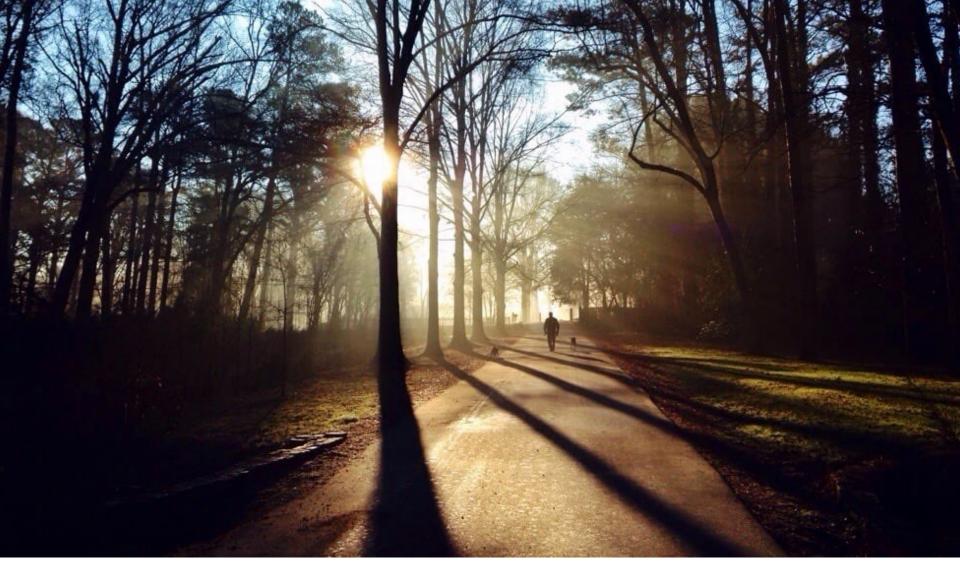

The Triangle Region is the most connected urban area along the East Coast Greenway.

East Coast Greenway Progress

Ellerbe Creek Trail (3 miles)

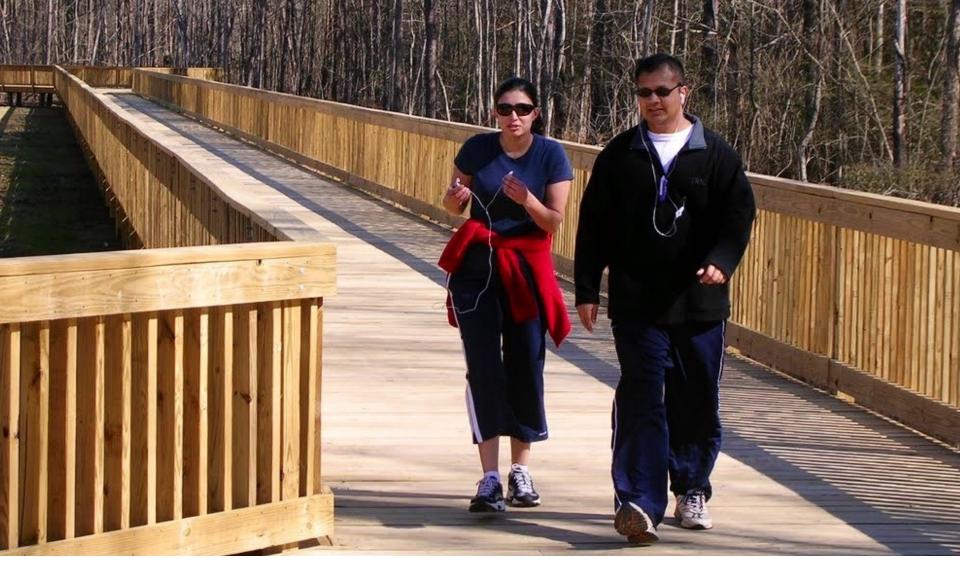

Downtown Trail (1.3 miles)

American Tobacco Trail (17.5 miles)

White Oak Greenway (6 miles)

Black Creek Greenway (7 miles)

Umstead State Park Trails (5 miles)

Reedy Creek Trail (4.7 miles)

Rocky Branch Trail (2.2 miles)

Little Rock Trail (1 mile)

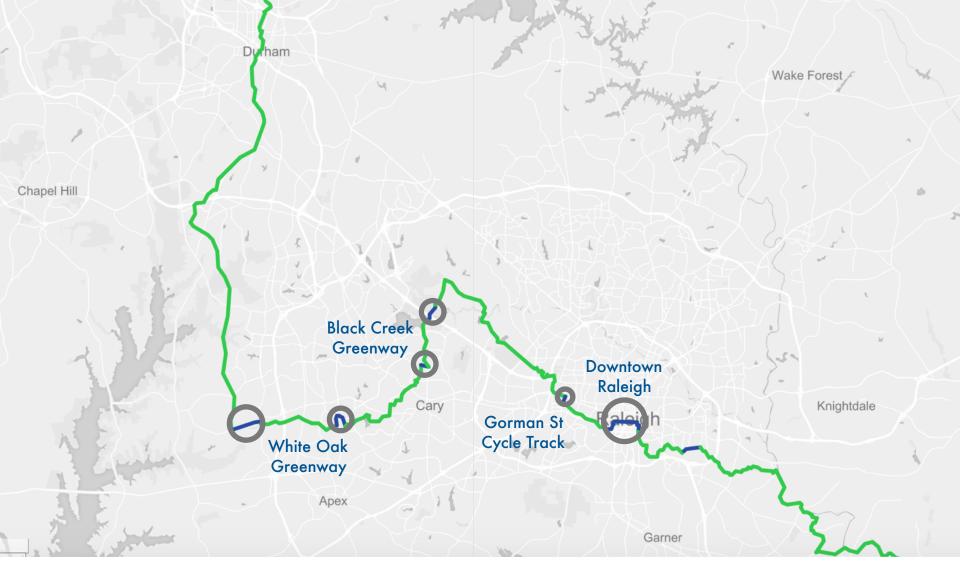

Walnut Creek Trail (7.2 miles)

Neuse River Trail (9 miles)

Closing the Gaps:
By 2018, the Triangle route will be 97% off-road.

Contact Information:

Kathryn Zeringue
VA & NC Greenway Coordinator
kathryn@greenway.org

