

Priorities Survey for the Triangle's 2050 MTP

To inform the Alternatives Analysis for the development of Connect 2050, the Triangle Region's long-range transportation plan.

Welcome! Our regional planning agencies are updating the 2050 Metropolitan Transportation Plan (MTP), the Triangle's long-range transportation plan. The 2050 MTP will identify potential regional roadway, transit, rail, bicycle, and pedestrian improvements for the next 30 years. Three (3) scenarios outlining alternative futures for the region's transportation network have been developed based on robust community feedback during the goal setting stage. Community input is needed now to help identify the elements from the modeled scenarios that should be emphasized and carried forward to the draft plan.
