ROCKAY’S HIGH-PERFORMANCE SOCKS

Runners, Hikers and Ocean Woes

Cleaning our oceans

So you’re running, hiking or heading out to sea. We’ve got you covered with our bamboo fiber socks. A Natural ally to the environment, bamboo helps keep your feet happy, no matter where your adventures take you. Rockay’s high-performance weave.

Oder - Free Innovation

So yourureka feel. Each of our performance socks is made with odor-free bamboo fibers that absorb and neutralize unpleasant odors. That’s why we can say with confidence, “Just put it on, run - there’s no need to change socks.” Comfort and freshness on the go.

Quality & Sustainability Combined

As sock makers, we understand. We believe that all products should be made with sustainability in mind, without compromising performance. We are committed to making a positive impact on the planet. Our commitment to the environment is backed by the use of bamboo fibers, a renewable resource. We are proud to say, “Fiber from the forest. Life on your foot.”

To those of you who travel, Rockay socks are made with fibers that are sustainably sourced. This means that our materials are harvested in a way that will not harm the environment. We believe that it’s important to make a conscious decision about the materials we use in our products. Our goal is to provide you with a product that is both high-quality and environmentally friendly.
