Director's Report 9/9/2025

- Ballots have been received
 - We have received notification from three nursing facilities of voters that desire to vote. Per our instructions to the facilities, I will reach out after MAT training to schedule the visit to assist eligible voters in that facility for this municipal election.
 - Preparation continues for upcoming training and the municipal election.
 - I have been able to start putting SOSA Install on laptops this is a process that must be done before the election information is placed into the laptop. That will take place after the voter registration deadline. I am able to move forward with preparing laptops for training now.
 - Absentee room is ready for the processing of absentee ballot packets.
 - Donna continues to perfect Precinct Official information in preparation for training.
 - In your packet is information on the upcoming trainings-also there is information about Provisional Voting for Registration Repair Voters including counting the Registration Repair Voter's Provisional Ballot procedures.
- All is going well.
