

COUNTY OF ASHE POSITION VACANCY

Animal Control Officer/Cruelty Investigator

Ashe County is seeking applications to fill a vacancy in the Department of Animal Control as an Animal Control Officer/Cruelty Investigator. Successful applicant will be responsible for performing work in the enforcement of ordinances and statutes related to the control of animals in Ashe County. Employee will be responsible for answering complaint calls and pursuing citations against those in violation of animal control ordinances and/or in cases of inhumane treatment of animals. Applicant will assist with cleaning animal confinement areas, feeding and watering confined animals & enforcing compliance with tag laws and vaccination requirements. Applicant must exercise some independent judgment in completing assigned tasks. Employee is subject to the usual hazards of animal control work. Salary: $37,266.00 annually plus excellent benefits package. For a full job description and a Form PD-107 application, visit www.ashecountygov.com, or contact the NC Works office at 336-982-5627. Completed applications may be mailed to County of Ashe, Attn: Human Resources, 150 Government Circle Suite 2500, Jefferson NC 28640. Emailed applications will be accepted at humanresources@ashecountygov.com. Faxed applications may be submitted to 336-846-5516. Deadline for applications is Friday, October 15, 2021 at 5:00 p.m. Criminal records check and pre-employment drug testing is required. EOE/AAE