The proposed budget for Fiscal Year 2022/23 for Ashe County, North Carolina, has been prepared in accordance with the North Carolina Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act and NC General Statute 153A-82.

Current Budget

It is impossible to begin discussing the upcoming budget without talking about the current budget year, and the successes and changes that have taken place over the past year. The current budget year began with a tax rate increase in preparation for the construction of the new middle school. While that project has been delayed, it is now moving forward. A new architect has come on board and there has been an infusion of $17 million in additional grant funding for the school. This rate increase will ensure that the county can meet the future financial obligations of this project.

Other projects in the current budget year include the purchase of a new articulated dump truck for the landfill, a new position to assist county staff with streamlining IT and maintenance issues, construction of a new taxiway at the airport and investments in recreation at Ashe Park, Paddy Mountain and on the New River.

These successes are shared with the Board of Commissioners, our staff and the numerous partner agencies that we work with.

Proposed Budget

Staffing and Employment: Historically, Ashe County has had little problem recruiting talent for our many positions, because of generous wages, health insurance and retirement benefits. In the last few years, the job market has tightened, allowing more employees to have the flexibility to move for better opportunities that offer more competitive wages and benefits. Hourly part time-positions are becoming more difficult to fill as fast food chains and other employers offer wages in excess of $11.00/hr.

For this reason, this proposed budget is making several recommendations to address employment in the coming year. First, the budget is proposing a cost of living adjustment of 3% for our existing salaried employees. Secondly, this budget proposes to raise hourly wages between $.75 and $2.00, depending on qualifications, to bring our hourly rates to $11.00/hr., $12.50/hr., and $13.75/hr. for non-certified, uncertified and certified employees.

Public Safety: This budget year will be the first in our contract with Enterprise Fleet Management to purchase new vehicles for Law Enforcement. This program will come with some upfront cost to bring new vehicles online. However, a new fleet should save the county in maintenance and fuel as we remove old, unreliable vehicles from the fleet. Within the Corrections budget, is a grade increase for correctional staff to help address some of the issues we face, as mentioned above, in recruiting strong candidates for county jobs.

Emergency calls have been on a steady increase. Included in this budget is a greater commitment to our ambulance contract for additional services. Starting at the first of the calendar year, a new 12 hour ambulance and crew will come on duty and beginning January 2024, will transition into a 24 hour crew in our new contract with Ashe Medics which begins in July of 2024.

Environmental Services: While equipment issues have plagued the Environmental Services department this year, many of the major issues have been addressed with the purchase of a new articulated dump truck, as well as a rebuilding of the pan scraper, both of which are critical to moving dirt and materials at the landfill. This year, the only major equipment purchase is a new garbage truck to serve the six different convenience sites plus all other sites served by the department, including the hospital and county offices and each of our schools.

Economic Development/Industrial Park: With a considerable amount of grant funding in place, Ashe County is ready to break ground on the expansion of the Ashe County Business Park. This year will see the installation of utilities and a road to serve the park, to make this a marketable site for future business growth in the County. This budget reflects the expenses for construction and future marketing plus the $1.2 million in grant funding.

ARP and Capital Expenses: Before the end of the Fiscal Year 2021/22, Ashe County will receive its last payment promised in the American Recovery Act in the amount of $2.6 million. In total, Ashe County has received $5.2 million in funds from the Federal Government to aid with recovery from the COVID Pandemic. This funding will begin to be put to use in the coming budget year, on capital and other one-time major expenses that have been unreachable in previous budgets.

Some of those expenses include needed building repairs at the courthouse, health department building, and animal shelter. Equipment purchases include the first year payment on our lease with Enterprise, the purchase of a body scanner for the jail, a new radio work station for dispatch, purchase of the new park property, and the upgrade of existing office software and computer hardware.

Other Departments: Many of our other departments have projects worthy of mention.

- Tax Office: revaluation is underway and will conclude in the coming budget year. Additionally the department is looking at an audit of existing short-term rentals to ensure all occupancy revenue is accounted for.
- Parks and Rec: coming from the development of the County-Wide Recreation Plan, the department is looking to do some additional planning/design at Family Central to build off the success of the complex.
- Airport: NCDOT has awarded the County additional funding to finally complete the waterline that will connect to the airport.

Each year tough decisions must be made to balance the budget. Not all requests find their way into the budget because of priorities and limited funding. This year, several items were left out but are worthy of continued discussion. One of these is Ashe County Schools and their ability to keep employees with competitive wages and local supplements. The request by the Ashe County School Board is worthy of discussion, but totals $1.2 million or approximately an addition of $.03 to the tax rate.

In conclusion, the proposed budget for the General Fund for fiscal year 2022/23 is $47,708,998, with a proposed tax rate of $.51.

This budget would not be possible without the hard work of each of our departments in compiling this information, in addition to approaching their operations with a sense of frugality and determination to provide excellent service. Additionally, the entire Finance and Administration Department led by Sandy Long, and including Angie Eggers, Teresa Bare, Ashley Lambert, and Brenda Miles are due a debt of gratitude for their hard work in putting this document together.

I respectfully submit this budget to the Board of Commissioners and welcome the discussion and input of the Board this 16th day of May, 2022.
