

A Muslim Prayer of Thankfulness

In the name of God, the Compassionate, the Merciful

In the Qur'an, God Almighty says: "Remember! Your Lord has declared, 'If you are grateful, I will increase my favors upon you.'" (14:7).

There are so many favors and blessings that we need to be thankful for; blessings that we take for granted.

Thanking God should be much more than simply offering a one-day thank you prayer after a dinner. We must show our thanks in our actions, every day. Prophet Muhammad said that "Those who do not thank people, they do not thank God"

Let's thank God for His blessings by thanking those people who deliver those blessings to us. Let's thank the workers, the farmers, the laborers, the drivers, and all the good people by treating them fairly, the way we would like to be treated.

O God, grant us thankfulness to you by helping promote a culture of justice and equity to other people.

Amen
