

ZEBULON

NORTH CAROLINA

The Town of Zebulon is Wake County's eastern-most community, and it's also one of the area's best-kept secrets. Its location along I-87 offers easy access to the entire Research Triangle region, yet it remains far enough from the hustle and bustle to provide residents with authentic small town charm. It's also home to one of the largest pharmaceutical manufacturing facilities on the east coast, and serves as the headquarters for one of the world's leading producers of wine corks.
