

33rd Annual Chapel Hill-Carrboro
CROP Hunger Walk Fact Sheet
Sunday, March 29, 2020, Carrboro Town Commons at 2:30 p.m.

- What is it? The Crop Hunger Walk is a four-mile walk through the diverse streets of Carrboro, Chapel Hill and the UNC Campus with rest stops along the way with food, music and fun upon your return. The CROP Hunger Walk links the community together to raise money to provide food and other resources for people locally and around the world to aid in hunger relief.
- Who walks? Carrboro and Chapel Hill area and neighboring congregations, businesses, schools, non-profit agencies, organizations or any person who wants to contribute their time and/or money to help support those in need.
- When? Sunday, March 29, 2020 with step off at 2:30 p.m. after a brief program at the Carrboro Town Commons. Registration for walkers begins at 1:00 p.m.
- Where? Carrboro Town Commons, 301 West Main Street, Carrboro
- How? Participants begin by inviting their friends, businesses, organizations, and employers to sponsor them with contributions prior to the four- mile walk.
- Who benefits? The Church World Service (www.cwsglobal.org), established in 1946, distributes 75% of the money from the CROP Hunger Walk to global hunger education, disaster relief, and self- help projects in the countries that they serve. The remaining 25% of the walk funds stay in the Carrboro-Chapel Hill area to support the Inter-Faith Council for Social Service's (IFC) hunger-relief programs, such as the Food Pantry and the Community Kitchen. See www.ifcweb.org for more information about these programs.
- How to help? Become a walker, sponsor a walker, donate online at www.crophungerwalk.org/chapelhillnc , volunteer to assist with “day of the walk” needs, visit us on Facebook or share this information with your community
