

FYI: (All children must be accompanied by an adult at all times) Excursions – Tours:
In county Adults - $5.00; 4 yrs. & under- Free; Elementary Students - $3.00, School Students - $4.00.
Out-of-county - 18 - Adults $7.00, Students -$5.00; Call for Group rates, make tour appointment, present Check or MO in advance payable to OHHHM * Handicapped Accessible* No Alcoholic Beverages.
Smoke-Free ☹ Drug-Free Facility - Including Grounds

OHHHM Founders:
 The Bullocks:
 Mr. Mack Bullock, II
 Ms. Alma Peace-Bullock

Oak Hill Heritage House Museum and Research Library (OHHHM)

7686 Goshen Rd. Oak Hill, Oxford NC 27565 919.693.4014 almackbullock@aol.com

Call for hours and appointments: 919.603.0322 OHHHM2016RL@centurylink.net

An African American Museum & Research Library housing multicultural resources; to preserve and promote awareness of the local rich history and culture; and give residents a glimpse into the past and present history of the Oak Hill area and its' historical significance to the community, Granville County, state of North Carolina and to the nation. For more info: <http://oakhillheritagehouse.org>

Ms. Alma Peace-Bullock

Ms. Gwendolyn P. Taylor

OAK HILL HERITAGE HOUSE MUSEUM & RESEARCH LIBRARY ADVISORY COUNCIL AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Officers for 2014 – 2017

(from left seated)

Ms. Alma Peace-Bullock, Mr. Charles Oakley,
 Ms. Tabitha Royster,

(standing) Ms. Gwendolyn Taylor

Ms. Carolyn Williams, Ms. Renee Green

Ms. Marion Woods, Ms. Marlene Hendricks,

(Back row L-R) Mr. Michael Allen, Ms. Mary Harris,

Mr. Mack Bullock, and Mr. J L Green.

Photo taken by Mr. Kenneth Woods, II

