

Homeownership Program Selection and Deselection Policy

Rev. January 2024

Habitat for Humanity of Orange County, North Carolina (“HHOC”), is committed to providing affordable, descent housing to first-time homebuyers living and/or working in Orange County. As part of this commitment, HHOC has undertaken several initiatives including its Homeownership Program (“The Program” or “Program”), which is administered by the Homeowner Services Team (HOS). The Program is intended to provide not only the housing inventory and financing, but also educational opportunities and support services to foster long-term homeowner success. Eligibility, Recommendation, and Selection for The Program will be based upon three factors: 1) ability to repay a home loan (“Ability to Pay”) 2) willingness to partner with HHOC (“Willingness to Partner”); and 3) need for affordable housing (“Need”). Under no circumstances will eligibility, recommendation, or selection for The Program be made on the basis of race, sex, color, age, disability, religion, marital status, or whether the applicant's income is derived from public assistance programs.

Homeownership Program Eligibility Procedures

- A. Eligibility Procedures: The Homeowner Services Team (“HOS”) will open application periods for The Program in coordination with the Construction Services Team (“CST”), based upon the CST’s construction schedule. From the applications received, HOS will identify the pool of applicants who 1) timely completed the application, and 2) met all of the objective eligibility requirements of The Program. HOS will then submit this pool of eligible applicants to the Homeownership Program Selection Committee (“HPSC”) for a subjective evaluation and ranking of each eligible applicant based upon 1) Ability to Pay, 2) Willingness to Partner and 3) Need. When completing their evaluation, members of the HPSC should consider information furnished by eligible applicants in that applicant’s completed application and through applicant interviews conducted by HHOC staff. After considering these evaluations, HPSC shall recommend a slate of eligible applicants to HHOC’s Board of Directors (“The Board”) for selection into The Program. The Board must select an eligible applicant for The Program by unanimous consent.
- B. Application Eligibility Requirements: Applicants must timely submit the application provided by HOS for the application cycle. To be considered, the application must be clear, complete, and submitted in good faith with all required supplemental documentation. In addition, Applicants must meet the eligibility requirements of the program as identified immediately below (items 1-6).

The applicant and co-applicant will be on the mortgage and responsible for the home loan. Household members will live in the home but not be responsible for the mortgage. Política de selección y cancelación del programa de propiedad de vivienda
Rev. enero 2024

Habitat for Humanity del Condado de Orange, Carolina del Norte (“HHOC”), se compromete a brindar viviendas asequibles y dignas a quienes compran una vivienda por primera vez y/o trabajan en el Condado de Orange. Como parte de este compromiso, HHOC ha emprendido varias iniciativas, incluido su Programa de Propiedad de Vivienda (“El Programa” o “Programa”), que es administrado por el Equipo de Servicios para Propietarios (HOS). El programa tiene como objetivo proporcionar no solo inventario y financiamiento de viviendas, sino también oportunidades educativas y servicios de apoyo para fomentar el éxito de los propietarios de viviendas a largo plazo. La elegibilidad, recomendación y selección para el programa se basarán en tres factores: 1) capacidad para pagar un préstamo hipotecario (“capacidad de pago”) 2) voluntad de asociarse con HHOC (“voluntad de asociarse”); y 3) necesidad de vivienda asequible (“Necesidad”). Bajo ninguna circunstancia la elegibilidad, recomendación o selección para el Programa se realizará en función de raza, sexo, color, edad, discapacidad, religión, estado civil o si los ingresos del solicitante se derivan de programas de asistencia pública.

Procedimientos de elegibilidad para el programa de propiedad de vivienda

- A. Procedimientos de elegibilidad: El Equipo de Servicios para Propietarios (“HOS”) abrirá períodos de solicitud para el Programa en coordinación con el Equipo de Servicios de Construcción (“CST”), según el cronograma de construcción del CST. De las solicitudes recibidas, HOS identificará el grupo de solicitantes que 1) completaron la solicitud oportunamente y 2) cumplieron con todos los requisitos objetivos de elegibilidad del Programa. Luego, HOS presentará este grupo de solicitantes elegibles al Comité de Selección del Programa de Propiedad de Vivienda (“HPSC”) para una evaluación subjetiva y clasificación de cada solicitante elegible según 1) Capacidad de pago, 2) Voluntad de asociarse y 3) Necesidad. Al completar su evaluación, los miembros del HPSC deben considerar la información proporcionada por los solicitantes elegibles en la solicitud completa de ese solicitante y a través de las entrevistas realizadas por el personal de HHOC. Después de considerar estas evaluaciones, HPSC recomendará una lista de solicitantes elegibles a la Junta Directiva de HHOC (“La Junta”) para su selección en el Programa. La Junta debe seleccionar un solicitante elegible para el Programa por consentimiento unánime.
- B. Requisitos de elegibilidad de la solicitud: Los solicitantes deben presentar oportunamente la solicitud proporcionada por HOS para el ciclo de solicitud. Para ser considerada, la solicitud debe ser clara, completa y presentada de buena fe con toda la documentación complementaria requerida. Además, los solicitantes deben cumplir con los requisitos de elegibilidad del programa como se identifican inmediatamente a continuación (elementos 1 a 6).
